

Tax Credits for the Purchase of Energy-Efficient Windows and Doors

This certificate is intended to show the SoftLite products that qualify as Building Envelope Components eligible for a tax credit under the 2023 Federal Energy-Efficient Home Improvement Tax Credits that took effect on Jan. 1, 2023, and expire on Dec. 31, 2032. The tax law requires that windows and patio doors must meet the ENERGY STAR® Most Efficient criteria in the installed products' climate zone to qualify for the tax credit. Homeowners should consult their tax adviser to determine their eligibility.

Headquartered at 10250 Philipp Parkway, Streetsboro, OH 44241. SoftLite manufactures vinyl windows and doors that, when purchased with optional Low-E glass, an inert argon gas fill, and foam-filled frames in a triple-glazed unit, meet or exceed the prescriptive criteria established by the IECC for all climate zones in which the windows or doors are installed. They also meet or exceed ENERGY STAR program requirements (as in effect at the time of installation).

To certify the SoftLite products for purposes of tax credits available under Section 25C of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), SoftLite represents that the following window products, when purchased with the optional glass packages and features mentioned above, are "Eligible Building Envelope Component(s)" that qualify for the federal income tax credit allowed under Section 25C of the IRC. The numbers listed on the certificate are NFRC's CPD numbers. These numbers designate the product line on the NFRC website at www.NFRC.org.
